

FAMILY VACATIONS IN GERMANY

The region of "Lüneburg Heath" in northern Germany is a rich natural and cultivated landscape between the Elbe and Weser rivers and the cities of Bremen, Brunswick, Hamburg and Hanover. The varied countryside features glacial valleys, heath-land, moors and wooded areas. This destination is great for families with children. Few other places can offer such a diverse range of attractions and rides with a number of leisure parks, game parks and zoos, including the Heide Park, Bird Park and Serengeti Park.

Heide Park in Soltau is always a great day out for all age groups. It has the steepest wooden roller coaster in the world, the largest gyro drop tower, a dolphin area, wild water rides and a pirates' world action comedy show.

Bird Park; experience the whole breadth of the bird world from every continent. The over 4,500 birds are kept in a way appropriate to the species in large aviaries, visitor-accessible large indoor aviaries and generous open-air enclosures.

Serengeti Park; ones can get close to giraffes, zebras and elephants on a 10 km safari. 200 monkeys tumbling around in outdoor enclosures that are partly walk-through. 200 hectares with its 1,500 free-roaming exotic animals.
